Conclusion 93/11

The Programme and Budget Committee:

(a) Considered the proposals of the Director-General for the programme of work, 1994-1995, and the corresponding total resource requirements by major programmes to be financed from the regular and operational budgets, as contained in document PBC.9/2-IDB.11/2 and revised in PBC.9/2/Rev.1-IDB.11/2/Rev.1 and Add.1;

(b) Noted that the exchange rate applied in those estimates was US$ 1 = AS 12.90 for the regular and operational budgets and that those estimates would be adjusted in accordance with financial regulation 5.1, paragraph (d), prior to the end of the fifth session of the General Conference;

(c) Noted that the inflation rates would also be updated prior to the end of the fifth session of the General Conference;

(d) Recommended that the Industrial Development Board:

(i) Submit to the General Conference for consideration and approval the programme and budgets for 1994-1995 as contained in documents PBC.9/2-IDB.11/2 and revised in PBC.9/2/Rev.1-IDB.11/2/Rev.1 and Add.1;

II. ADOPTION OF THE REPORT AND CLOSURE OF THE NINTH SESSION

10. On 28 June at 3.45 p.m., the Committee closed its ninth session, having entrusted the Rapporteur with the preparation and finalization of the report of its resumed ninth session.

Annex I

STATEMENTS BY DELEGATIONS

1. The present annex contains statements of principle delivered by delegations in connection with the adoption of conclusion 93/11 at the Programme and Budget Committee during its resumed ninth session. These statements have been included at the request of the delegations concerned and as agreed to by the Chairman.

2. The delegation of Austria, while commending the Secretariat on the preparation of document PBC.9/2/Rev.1/Add.1, was concerned that the list of countries with assessed contributions contained the name of Yugoslavia although at its ninth session the Programme and Budget Committee had adopted conclusion 93/2, in which it had recommended to the General Conference to approve the adjustments to the 1992-1993 scale of assessments as described in paragraphs 9 to 13 of the report on the financial situation of UNIDO (PBC.9/8). In paragraph 12 of that report it was stated that "If it is not to be assumed that the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia has succeeded to the membership in UNIDO of the former Socialist Federal Republic of Yugoslavia, there will be no assessment of Yugoslavia". Furthermore, at its first special session on 30 March this year, the General Conference of UNIDO had adopted a decision which (a) excluded Yugoslavia from participating in the work of all political organs of UNIDO, and (b) stated that the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia (Serbia and Montenegro) could not continue automatically the membership of the former Yugoslavia. The delegation requested clarification from the Secretariat, as to why Yugoslavia had been listed under the countries with assessed contributions, thus ignoring the resolution of the General Conference as well as the conclusion of the Programme and Budget Committee. The Socialist Federal Republic of Yugoslavia had ceased to exist and it did not seem logical to assess financially a country that did not exist. Even under the absurd assumption that the former Yugoslavia still existed, it seemed illogical to invite on the one hand a country to contribute to UNIDO's budget and to exclude it on the other hand from the participation in all organs and thus prevent it from deciding what was happening to its contribution. The delegation said that Yugoslavia should be deleted from the list of contributors paying assessed contributions to UNIDO. Should this, however, not be the case, it would like to emphasize once more that the inclusion of Yugoslavia in the list as one of UNIDO's contributors should in no way be a precedent for recognizing the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia as a successor State to the former Yugoslavia.

3. The delegation of the Russian Federation said that in relation to the statement of the representative of Austria, PBC conclusion 93/2, paragraph (e), referred to the adjustment of the scale of assessments for 1992-1993 and not to the 1994-1995 period which was the subject under consideration. In the view of that delegation, the Yugoslav question was not an issue to discuss at the present session; it merely deflected the attention of members of the Committee from the basic issues. The question of the exclusion of any particular country, including Yugoslavia, from the scale of assessments was the prerogative of the United Nations Committee on Contributions which operated within the framework of the United Nations General Assembly. The question was political in essence and should be examined by the General Assembly of the United Nations, as had been the case in the past and would continue to be in the future. Accordingly, the delegation proposed as the only acceptable course of action to leave this question for the consideration of the forthcoming General Conference of UNIDO, especially since by that time the question might be clarified.
